

CURRICULUM VITAE

Fernanda Helen Perrone

320 Magnolia Street, #B1
Highland Park, NJ 08904
(732) 249-8998

Special Collections and University Archives
Rutgers University Libraries
New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1163
(848) 932-6154
hperrone@rulmail.rutgers.edu

EDUCATION

Rutgers University School of Communications,
Information, and Library Studies
Oxford University, Oxford, England

M.L.S. 1995
Ph.D. 1991

EMPLOYMENT AT SPECIAL COLLECTIONS AND UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES, RUTGERS UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Archivist	1/92-
Head of Exhibitions/Assistant Professor	1/03-6/09
Associate Professor	7/09-

SELECTED ARTICLES:

“From Annals to Heritage Centers: The Archives of Women’s Religious Communities,” in Perspectives on Women’s Archives (Chicago: Society of American Archivists, 2013).

“Gone and Forgotten? New Jersey’s Catholic Junior Colleges,” American Catholic Studies 121 (2), Summer 2010: 31–64.

“Whose History Is It? Doing Research in the Archives of Women’s Religious Communities,” Catholic Library World 80 (1) September 2009: 27-31. (Winner John Brubaker Award, CLA, 2010).

“Vanished Worlds: In Search of the Archives of Closed Catholic Women’s Colleges,” Archival Issues 30 (2), 2006 [2008]: 119-149.

“‘A Well-Balanced Education’: Catholic Women’s Colleges in New Jersey 1900-1970,” American Catholic Studies 117 (2), Summer 2006: 1–31. (Catholic Press Association Award).

Review, Catholic Women’s Colleges in America, History of Education Quarterly, 43(2) Summer 2003.

“‘To Save Them from the Dangers to their Faith’: Documenting Student Life at Catholic Women’s Colleges,” Journal of Archival Organization 1(2) 2002: 65–76.

“Women Academics in England, 1870–1930,” History of Universities 12, 1993: 339–367.

SELECTED CONFERENCE PAPERS

“‘A General Education before Marriage’: The Little-Known History of Catholic Junior Colleges,” American Catholic Historical Association Winter Meeting, January 10, 2011.

“Whose History Is It? Doing Research in the Archives of Women’s Religious Communities,” American Catholic Historical Association Spring Meeting, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, April 18, 2009.

“Gone and Forgotten? New Jersey’s Catholic Junior Colleges,” American Catholic Historical Association Spring Meeting, Notre Dame, Indiana, April 5, 2008.

“From Girls’ Academies to Women’s Colleges: Catholic Women’s Colleges in New Jersey, 1900–1970,” Monsignor William Noé Field Lecture, Seton Hall University, April 30, 2003.

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Volunteer Oral Historian, Loretto Community, 2012–

Peer Reviewer, American Catholic Studies, 2008–

New Jersey Catholic Historical Records Commission, 2004–